The Lenten booklet that is used also focuses on how Caritas is empowering people in needy countries to live

ANOINTING MASS: The monthly Mass of Anointing will be held at 10.30am next Saturday, 7th February at St Joseph's Church. Everyone is welcome at this Mass, even if they do not wish to be anointed. There will be morning tea/lunch after Mass.

ROSTERS: We are beginning to make the rosters for the next 3 months, March, April and May. If you have any special requests, (remembering that this covers Easter and the next school holiday times), please contact your roster co-ordinator or the Parish Office for St Joseph's, and Helen Chitty helen4sun@hotmail.com for Our Lady Help of Christians.

JUBILEE FOR PRISONERS: Last year on 13/14 December, as part of the "Year of Jubilee", we acknowledged Jubilee For Prisoners. We were going to distribute bookmarks on that day, asking parishioners to pray for the prisoner in a particular cell in one of the three prisons in the diocese. The bookmarks didn't arrive in New Plymouth that weekend, and in fact arrived just last week. As Pilgrims of Hope, we ask parishioners to now take a book mark from the church foyers and pray. We have bookmarks for those in cells 428 to 552 in Hawkes Bay Regional Prison. Mercy is God's Light. Let us extend the gift of mercy and love to all in prison. Please, take a book mark with you on Sunday.

MARIAN MOTHERS meet Thursday 5 February at Glenda's home @ 3 Karamea Street Whalers Gate NP, 7.00pm to 8.30pm. This is a change from our usual meeting place at Our Lady Help of Christians Church. Please come along and join in prayer and a cuppa. Please bring a small sharing plate. Any queries please phone Glenda 021 323 765.

CATHOLIC WOMENS LEAGUE: As Waitangi Day, a public holiday, is celebrated Friday 6 February, there will be no 12.05pm Mass at St Joseph's Church that day. This means there will be No First Friday luncheon. Everyone is invited instead, to be part of this regular fundraising luncheon, on the first for the month, 6 March after 12.05pm Mass.

PALMS FOR ASHES FOR ASH WEDNESDAY: We are collecting the 2025 palms to burn for ashes for Ash Wednesday. If you want to bring in your 2025 palms, they can be left in the baskets in the church foyers or in the Parish Office.

BE STILL & KNOW THAT I AM GOD
LENTEN SEMINAR ON CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER
And Ignatian Spirituality

During the season of Lent, a four week seminar on contemplative prayer will be held each Wednesday at 10.30 a.m. and Thursday at 7.15 p.m., conducted by Fr Alan Roberts. The seminar covers topics such as managing silence in prayer & praying with scripture. It will also include an introduction to Ignatian Spirituality. You choose just one of the sessions. At the conclusion of the seminar the offer will be made of working through the Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius in daily life.

Fr Roberts is now resident in New Plymouth. He has been involved in Ignatian Spirituality and encouraging deeper forms of prayer since 1977. He spent 5 years as spiritual director (2012-17) at our national seminary. Some of his writings on contemplative prayer can be found on www.pukekaraka.com.

LITURGICAL POSTURE:

Bishop John Adam's Transcript on Posture - Dec 2025 invited every parish to take part in a diocesan-wide process of reflection on the significance of our bodily posture during the liturgy – particularly during the Eucharistic Prayer.

The Catholic Diocese of Palmerston North is embarking on a discussion about liturgical posture, with a focus on the Eucharistic Prayer at Mass.

From Bishop John, two further points to consider:

First, the word indult – a permission granted for certain liturgical actions not in the original instruction. One such indult allows kneeling from the "Holy, Holy" through to the Great Amen, rather than just during the consecration. We could choose to follow this or kneel for a shorter time. Second, kneeling is deeply biblical. Jesus knelt to pray to the Father, and many fell to their knees before Him. So don't assume standing is the only biblical posture when encountering the risen Christ – which is precisely what happens at Mass. At the consecration, Christ is present on the altar – Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

What should be our bodily response to that reality?

I invite you to reflect, read, pray, and discuss this issue individually or in groups. Please share your thoughts with me through the bishop's office here in Palmerston North, by emailing bishop-pa@pndiocese.org.nz or in writing to Bishop's Office, P O Box 5279, Terrace End, Palmerston North 4441, by Wednesday, 18 February 2026.
